Island Dream: Unique Rural Property on the Maria River

The property features 100 acres of lush pasture, with historical improvements including an original hardwood-framed homestead. While in need of renovation, the homestead offers limitless potential to create a unique living space, making it an ideal retreat for owner-occupiers or caretakers. Envision transforming this space into the ultimate weekender where fishing and boating become part of your everyday life.

Whether you're seeking a sea change, a weekender, or a holiday destination, this property is perfect for those looking to embrace a new lifestyle or find a home away from home. Embrace the chance to create the ultimate lifestyle on Fentons Island-this is quite literally...
